Restorative Services:

BSL's Restorative Services Program provides stabilizing basic needs while engaging guests to access additional services. This suite of services includes a healthy community meal, a secure mailing service for individuals experiencing homelessness or housing insecurity, an ID procurement service, a curated clothing boutique, and the distribution of personal care and hygiene items. From January through June 2025, approximately 3,500 individuals accessed our Restorative Services programming, including 39,000 meals served and over 945 new mailboxes opened. Delivered through a trauma-aware model of care, this suite of services helps decrease anxiety and foster trust and security, which can lead to more impactful clinical interventions.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Second Accomplishment

Clinical Support Services:

These critical and more therapeutic services include the Concierges (case management), De-Escalation, and Reentry programs, all assisting guests in developing tools to more effectively advocate for themselves, manage behavioral or psychological challenges, re-acclimate to community life in a non-institutional environment, and pursue goals around housing, employment, education, and more robust civic participation. Our Concierge program adapts traditional case management to BSL's trauma-aware, person-centered model based on the concept of "Radical Hospitality." The Clinical Support team also coordinates a suite of onsite partner providers, including a federally qualified health clinic, weekly and monthly legal clinics, health and wellness consultations, assessments for supportive housing, a monthly support group for formerly incarcerated individuals, a civic engagement and voter education group, and our Therapeutic Arts Table. In the first half of 2025, 2,045 guests received Concierge case management services, including assistance accessing benefits.
